Please Note: You need to arrive in Heraklion Crete May 23rd
Your return flight needs to depart from Chania Crete, June 08th

THE JOURNEY

☉ Enjoy the sacred pilgrimage to the Goddess and to your deepest self.

☉ Experience the archeology Museum in Heraklion. Home to the Cretan snake Goddess, the labrys, Phaestos disk, and many sacred Goddess objects from Minoan Crete (2,000-300 BC).

☉ Explore the Palace of Knossos. The original ruins of “the labyrinth” thought to be only a myth, discovered in 1878. These ruins are the source of the labyrinth of Ariadne, King Minos and the Minotaur.

☉ Follow the pilgrimage path to the Minoan Peak Sanctuary at Mt. Juktas

☉ Encounter the sacred Goddess caves of Artemis, Hike up to the Diktian Cave - “birthplace of Zeus” - but really the home to the Great Mother as well as other sacred caves used for centuries in the worship of Goddess. Her power remains!

☉ Envelop yourself in the warm, blue dazzling Mediterranean Sea. Enjoy a massage on the beach by a certified massage therapist in a private grass hut.

☉ See the new archeological museum Ancient Eleftherna with 15,000 items from necropolis dating back to 3,000 BC.

☉ Entertain ourselves with spontaneous stops for olive oil, fresh fruit, honey, and hand-made Cretan products.

☉ Hike to Minoan ruins on the stunning Lasithi Plateau where Poppy Goddess statues were found.

☉ Refresh at our beautiful and relaxing retreat center outside Paleochora on the southwest side of Crete. The retreat center, set in an olive grove valley, is ecologically designed with natural stone and hand-made straw-bale construction, active and passive solar, and mountain spring water. There is a central kitchen for our use, as well as washing machine. We awake to the sound of goat bells tinkling and sheep calling.

☉ During our stay at the retreat center, we will be in sacred space in a nearby cave, hike to the ancient healing site of Lissos, with its sacred water, snake pit and mosaic floor. In the round room of the retreat center, (the temple) and beehive room, we will have our simple rituals. We will have plenty of free time between adventures to play and enjoy the charming town of Paleochora.

☉ Ocean blessing ritual at the Libyan sea.

☉ Explore Loutro, a small village down the southern coast from our retreat center that can only be reached by boat. Enjoy day hikes, idyllic beaches and swimming through caves in this off-the-beaten-path paradise.

☉ Optional day trip (weather permitting) - hike the beautiful Irimi gorge (approx. 5 miles)

☉ Enjoy the wonderful old city of Chania, with its venetian harbor, lots of interesting alleys and the new archeological museum, as well as “shop ‘til you drop” opportunities.

CRETE DETAILS

Dining in Crete is often outdoors and relaxed. Enjoying the cafes will certainly be a part of our retreat together. The Cretan diet is reputed to be the healthiest in the world. The Mediterranean food is healthful, fresh, and just delicious. If you are a “foodie” or a “foodie in training”, this is the trip for you!

Past participants have experienced the Goddess in deep, tangible and powerful ways in Crete. The land is ancient! The Minoan civilization flourished at the same time as the Egyptian culture 5,000 years ago. Egypt is only 250 miles from the southern shores of the island.

The cave rituals (co-created by our group together) have been transformative for women because of the visceral experience of being in the womb of the Great Mother. The Goddess culture on Crete is ancient; and She is powerful, accessible and sensual. A delightful side effect of time in Crete seems to be a radiant, healing, sensual, and enlivening energy for women, as they embody the Goddess in a deeper way.

To fully participate in the retreat YOU MUST BE PHYSICALLY FIT !!!

Many events and rituals involve hiking, walking, exploring caves, and hauling your luggage up flights of stairs. This is a mountainous country. So please be realistic in evaluating your fitness ability. This trip is not designed for women with physical disabilities. Some of the activities are optional.

This trip is for women experienced in psychological, spiritual, and/or ritual work; who wish to go deeper and live more fully.

If you are currently under the care of a psychiatric professional, please discuss your attendance with them. Participants should be in a stable period of mental well-being and have adequate self-regulatory resources to fully participate.

Organizer's reserve the right of final approval of participants based on assessment of traveler's compatibility to maintain physical safety and group dynamics.

Price: $3,150

Includes: All rituals/activities, All entrance fees, All breakfasts.

Lodging - Sixteen nights, shared double occupancy. No single rooms.

All transportation in Crete - taxi, car rental, gas, ferries/boats. Drivers for our vehicles are volunteers from our own group of travelers and must be experienced with standard stick shift.

Not Included: Airfare to Crete, lunches and dinners (estimate $40 per day to be very generous) and personal spending. Bring a KN95 face mask to wear if needed.

NOTE: you need to arrive Friday, May 23rd

(Arrive anytime on Friday in Heraklion, so we can begin our adventures right after breakfast on Saturday, May 24th).

Note: You may need about $20 Euros to take a taxi from the Heraklion airport to the hotel and we will reimburse you.

Disclaimer: Crete moves to its own rhythm and time. Be flexible; there is always a chance that we won't know what we will find until we get there. Museums can be unexpectedly closed without notice or internet updates. No matter what, we will have an adventure exploring what calls us, or we may even find a new cave.

“Crete’s mystery is extremely deep. Whoever sets foot on this island senses a mysterious force branching warmly and beneficially through (her) veins, senses (her) soul begin to grow.” – Nicholas Kazantzakis

Land of the Never Emptying Honey Pot-Mehli - by Alaina Zipp, 2013

Crete, your land and food seduces any body.

We leave a burbling hive of hominess and then step into a hubbub of joy. We gather regularly for the foodgasms to begin.

Tsisiki, souvlaki, mushroom pies and fritters, cheese pies and crepes, greens and beets and aubergine, caves, trees and stones with endless jewelry sky and sea.

Crete, the Altar of your fleshly pleasures awaits us, but you have more than met your match.

We know how to use 10 fingers plus 6 senses in order to enjoy your fruits.

Slurping honey and chocolate, we can relearn to ecstatically feed our heart’s flesh.

Honey in pouches, jars and bags, honey with bread, chicken and tea, honey oozes from the walls of caves, sweet nectar of the Mother, and honey seeps from a womb in love.

All painstaking, intimately timed and cooked miracles That leave you forever changed.

WHAT OUR TRAVELERS HAD TO SAY

“Stepping onto the Island of Crete is like greeting a long, lost loved one. The land has not forgotten Her and Her presence fills your every pore. You leave with a full heart and an aching longing to return, again and again.”

- Nicki

“One of the greatest experiences of my life was my trip to Crete with the amazing teachers and leaders of women, Ruth Barrett and Catherine Ridder. They took us to places seen and felt by very few in the world... what a privilege.

They were organized, brilliant, and our accommodations were lovely. The entire experience was just beyond beyond!” - Ava (presiding Priestess of the Goddess Temple of Orange County, CA)

“A juicy journey of deep personal transformation with amazing women, through a land rich with herstory and sensory pleasures. All arrangements are beautifully coordinated, and magic unfolds in every daily adventure.”

- Aimee

“The trip to Crete was more than just an amazing vacation, it was a sacred pilgrimage. The time I spent with these incredible women exploring ancient caves, looking out on picturesque ocean views, eating delicious food, and discovering the divine feminine on this sacred land is forever etched in my mind and heart. The trip of a lifetime!” -

Sara
